Your Cruise Itinerary

Wednesday 22 September Sydney, Australia
1pm Boarding Open ó you are free to board at your leisure
4pm Cruise departs Sydney
Join the rest of our group on-deck for the ship's Sail-a-way Party.

As the ship leaves Sydney to new adventures, soak in the live music, sip delicious cocktails and dance the night away while you meet and greet your fellow passengers at the Sail-a-way party

Thursday 23 September Level 1 workshop ***
6pm Welcome Cocktail Function ó Meet Sue Nicholson

Friday 24 September Level 2 workshop ***

Saturday 25 September At leisure – ship calls at Poom, New Caledonia
Emerald Bay is set in an enormous azure lagoon. Relax on the haven of white-sand beaches, enjoy great snorkeling in the aqua waters or gain an insight into the culture of the Melanesians

Sunday 26 September At leisure – ship visits Isle of Pines, New Caledonia
Choose an optional tour or simply head ashore to explore!
The Isle of Pines is part of New Caledonia and is situated 50km south east of the mainland. The tall narrow pine trees are a feature of this 17km long island. The most difficult aspect of your visit to the Isle of Pines will be saying goodbye to its sunny skies, friendly faces, warm waters and of course those beautiful beaches

Monday 27 September At leisure – ship visits Noumea, New Caledonia
Choose an optional tour or simply head ashore to explore!
The city of Noumea is a short distance away from the port. Le Petit Train is one of the most popular ways of getting into Noumea and exploring the city. The city is spread out over a long distance. The famous Tjbaou Cultural centre, one of the jewels of the South Pacific is an architectural masterpiece and is 20 minutes outside the centre. The city has some little gems; traditional Boulangerie (Bakery Shops), cafés (where you can taste New Caledonia's own coffee) and fabulous restaurants where you can sample fine New Caledonian foods cooked in a French style with imported French wines. Aside from tours the most popular activity is to head to two beaches a short drive from central Noumea, Anse Vata and Baie Citron, here you can enjoy resort facilities, swim off the beach, eat at one of the small brasseries or do some souvenir shopping.

Tuesday 28 September Meet Your Angels workshop

Wednesday 29 September 1pm Sue Nicholson presents a Live Reading theatre show
Be part of the audience as Sue connects with the spirit world to bring through messages from beyond.
(Note: Sue cannot guarantee you will receive a reading)

4pm At leisure / chat with Sue
7pm Evening Farewell Cocktail Party

Thursday 30 September 7am Arrive Sydney
Disembark

NOTE: Sue's event schedule on board may change slightly

 Sue's Workshops

Each workshop will last approx. 4 hours and will include your own course notes and compendium. Sue introduces you to connecting with Spirit and receiving messages from beyond. Our tour will split into 2 groups with one group attending the workshops in the morning and the other in the afternoon, giving each group time to relax and enjoy the on-board amenities.

NOTE: Sue's event schedule on board may change slightly due to timings.
